- 【7】 次のスピーチの英文を読んで、(36)から(40)の問いに対する答えとして最も適切なものをそれぞれ1つ選びなさい。

Today, I'm going to talk about my friend, Ruth. She was born and raised in London. She came to our high school last April as an exchange student. She began to stay with my family and almost one year has passed.

Ruth is a very diligent girl. She studied Japanese very hard and now she has become a very good speaker of Japanese. Also, she is interested in the Japanese classics. One day, I was reading aloud a classic work of Japanese literature written by Murasakishikibu. She listened to me for a while and said, "Oh, that's The Tale of Genji." I was very surprised. Even Japanese students rarely read classics elsewhere than in class. It would be much harder for her to read Genji, but she knew it. Then, she said, "It is said that Japanese people are hardworking. However, students don't seem to study very hard." I felt ashamed. What she said was true of me at least.

Ruth is a Christian, but she likes to visit Japanese shrines and temples in the neighborhood. She wants to visit Kyoto before leaving Japan, so I will show her around there during the spring holidays. There is a little time left for her to stay in Japan. I want her to have a good time and have pleasant memories.

exchange student: 交換留学生      diligent: 勤勉な      classics: 古典 literature: 文学      Murasakishikibu: 紫式部      The Tale of Genji: 源氏物語 elsewhere than: ~以外に      ashamed: 恥ずかしい
what she said: 彼女が言ったこと      neighborhood: 近所      Christian: キリスト教徒

- (36) What country was Ruth from?
① From Japan.
② From China.
③ From England.
④ From Australia.
⑤ From America.
- (37) Is Ruth good at Japanese?
① No, she isn't.
② Yes. She is a good girl.
③ Yes. She can speak it very well.
④ Yes, she does.
⑤ Yes, she was.
- (38) Which statement is NOT true according to the passage?
① Ruth came to Japan to study its culture and language.
② Ruth and "I" have lived together for about one year.
③ Ruth is hardworking.
④ "I" am not a diligent student.
⑤ Ruth visited Kyoto before leaving Japan.

- (39) Why was “I” so surprised?
- ① Because Ruth knew about The Tale of Genji.
  - ② Because Ruth could speak Japanese very well.
  - ③ Because Ruth said “Japanese students don't seem to be hardworking.”
  - ④ Because Ruth was a Christian.
  - ⑤ Because Ruth wanted to go to Kyoto.
- (40) What will “I” do during the spring holidays?
- ① Read and study classic works of Japanese literature.
  - ② Study English much harder.
  - ③ Visit Japanese shrines and temples in the neighborhood.
  - ④ Go to Kyoto with Ruth.
  - ⑤ Go to London as an exchange student.
