Hi, I'm Tsubasa. I'm a female college student in Japan. I like to read comic books and watch movies on the Internet.

On July 23rd in 2021, I watched the opening ceremony of the Tokyo Olympics on TV at home. The opening ceremony was planned to be held on July 24th in 2020 but it was put off because Corona Virus spread all over the world.

My father got two tickets for the ceremony. My older brother wanted to go to the stadium and watch the ceremony but he had an official baseball game on the day. And my grandmother, Sanae, was sick in bed at a hospital so my mother had to take care of her. That's why we decided that my father and I would go and watch the opening ceremony at National Stadium.

However, we didn't go to the stadium and watch the ceremony because it was held with no audience. We had no choice and got a refund on the two tickets. I was very disappointed that I couldn't use the ticket which my father bought for me.

The other day, a few weeks later, instead of being disappointed, my parents had a house party. My grandmother got better and came back home from the hospital when we had the house party. I enjoyed the party and had a very good time with all of my family.

I feel it is very important for me to spend time with my family happily. I hope to get tickets for the next Paris Olympics for my family.
